HE POHIRI

When in 1965 it was decided that the Springboks would open their tour in Gisborne, the local Māori community were invited to stage a reception at Poho-o-Rawiri.

Our leaders, among whom were men steeped in the observance of Māori protocol, readily acceded, emphasising our obligation to extend a 'pohiri' (or welcome) to our 'manuhiri' (or guests).

The late Sir Turi Carroll, then President of the New Zealand Māori Council said it was as footballers and not as exponents of a political doctrine that the Māori people looked forward to the visit of the Springboks, who would be welcomed onto their maraes with traditional hospitality.

Many changes have taken place since 1965 however, and the 1981 scene is one of soul-searching, division and confrontation. Throughout the community there is doubt and tension, shared among both Pakeha and Māori.

Despite this there is a clear consensus that, as in the past, an obligation exists to say to our 'manuhiri':

"Kei te mihi atu ki a koutou, ki te manuhiri tuarangi.

Haere mai ki Turanga, nau mai ki te Tairāwhiti, ki runga ki nga papa takaro o Aotearoa me te Waipounamu."

"We greet you, our distinguished guests, and extend a welcome to you to Turanga (the City of Gisborne), to the Tairāwhiti, and to the playing fields of Aotearoa and Waipounamu, the North and South Islands."

Kia Ora!

H.K. NGATA Chairman
Tairāwhiti District Māori Council

FROM

PRESIDENT
N.Z.R.F.U.

THE New Zealand Rugby Football Union takes pleasure in extending a very warm welcome to members of the South African Rugby Touring Party. Though it is some 16 years since the last Springbok visit to this country, we have followed with interest your various rugby encounters with other nations during that time.

We are mindful of the fact too, that the South African Rugby Union, having accepted the terms of our invitation, arranged for the recent mixed trials from which this 1981 side has been selected. We look forward to continued competition on this basis, which we in this country have come to appreciate and respect in the choice of our New Zealand teams. No doubt you are well aware of the fact that certain opposition to this tour has been raised, but we as an amateur sporting body appointed solely to administer and cultivate the sport of rugby irrespective of race, religion or colour, have done just that and will continue to foster such principles at all times.

Like the 1965 Springboks, you will, I am sure, enjoy your first tour fixture today here at Rugby Park, Gisborne, where the rugby community has always received visiting sides with hospitality and enthusiasm second to none. We are grateful to the Poverty Bay Rugby Union for the excellent arrangements made for today's fixture and for the courtesies shown to our visitors.

To members of both teams participating this afternoon, the New Zealand Rugby Football Union extends best wishes for a most enjoyable and entertaining game.

JOHN M. CLIFFORD
President, N.Z.R.F.U.

POVERTY BAY PEN PORTRAITS

Phillip Duncan (Marist): 29, 12st, 5ft 8 in. Halfback and captain. Widely experienced player who first represented Poverty Bay in 1971. Over 100 first class games. Has played for Poverty Bay, Poverty Bay-East Coast, New Zealand Colts, New Zealand Juniors, New Zealand Marist. Has been consistently and inexplicably neglected at national level.

John Whittle (Marist): 25, 11st 10lbs, 5ft 8 in. Fullback. A highscoring fullback who has topped the century in points more than once in a season. Scored all Poverty Bay's points in Ranfurly Shield challenge against Auckland. Good eye for a gap and also plays well at first five-eighths.

Jody Walters (Marist): 26, 12st 5lbs, 5ft 10 in. Centre. Had his first game for the Bay at 18 and is presently playing some of the best rugby of his career. Has plenty of speed on attack and uses this well also on defence. A good eye for a gap and an exciting player to watch.

Guy Wainohu (Rangatira): 25, 15st 7lbs, 6ft 2in. Wing. Had an excellent debut for Poverty Bay against East Coast, scoring two tries and playing a leading hand in others. Big, strong runner was the find of the first rep game of the season. Plays centre for his club.

Tim Walters (Marist): 19, 13st 4lbs 6ft. Threequarter. An outstanding secondary school player who has made a great debut in senior ranks. Plays equally well as centre or wing in the highly talented Marist backline and scored two tries in his first game for the senior rep side. A player with a future.

Herbie Kowhai (GMC): 29, 14st, 6ft 1in. Five-eighths. Played for Taranaki and New Zealand Maoris before coming to Gisborne. A player who from his experience has developed many skills and who has the ability to really direct backplay. His rugby for his club has been outstanding and he will serve Poverty Bay well. First season in rep side.

Barry Hyland (Rangatira): 24, 13st 6lbs, 5ft 11in. Flanker. A tearaway flanker who gives his all to every game and plays well above his weight. Covers the field well and shows unusual strength for his size in tight play. He has been one of the top flankers in Poverty Bay rugby for the past three seasons.

John Karaka (Horouta): 28, 15st 12lbs, 6ft 3in. Lock. First played for Poverty Bay in 1972, again in 1973, and then had a long layoff for business reasons. Injuries hampered his comeback but he is back in top form and playing good, hard rugby. An extremely powerful player who uses his weight to advantage.

Andy Kelleher (Ngatapa): 24, 14st 5lbs, 5ft 10in. Powerful nuggety hooker who plays without compromise. Quick striker and grand tackler.

Walter Rika (GMC): 28, 10st 2lbs, 5ft 4in. Halfback. Played for Bay of Plenty last season before transferring to Gisborne. Regular member of B.O.P. Maoris since 1971. An extremely capable clearer of the ball from all situations, he directs play well for the freerunning GMC backline. Poverty Bay is rich in halfbacks and Rika is right up with the best of them.

Graham Barbara (Old Boys): 27, 13st, 5ft 7in. Winger. A hardened campaigner who has served the Bay well since his first game in 1975, the year in which he played three games for the New Zealand Colts. He also played for Poverty Bay-East Coast against the New Zealand Maoris in 1978. Strong running winger who is a hard man to stop.

Laurie Holmes, 24, 13st 8lbs, 5ft 11in. Utility Back: Another age group player who has made his mark in top level rugby. A player that fits into most positions and a better than average place kicker.

Les Barbara (Old Boys): 25, 13st, 5ft 10in. Centre. A hard-running midfield back who can commit a tackler in each break he makes. Also defends strongly and is in his fifth year in the rep squad, his career beginning in 1977, when he played eight games for the Bay. Has the pace to take a gap in the defence and turn it into profit.

Henry Maxwell (GMC): Prop. Went into senior rugby his first season out of Gisborne Boys High School where like Gary Muir he was an outstanding player and won North Island age-group honours. Now part of the strong Bay front row, he has measured up well and is a player who looks to have a fine future in the game. A NZ Colt this season.

Simon Spence (Old Boys): 29, 14st, 6ft. Flanker. A top rated member of the Old Boys senior pack, one of the best fielded in Poverty Bay for many years, Spence is a hard running player who is also a good tackler. His strength has gained him many tries for his club and the Bay. Played for Wairarapa-Bush for three seasons before returning to Gisborne.

Nick Frankish (Ngatapa): 23, 14st 7lbs, 6ft 3in. Number eight. Named one of the five most promising players in New Zealand at the end of last season, Nick Frankish played in Poverty Bay age group teams as a centre, as a fullback and loose forward at Lytton High School, a flank forward in the Canterbury University under 19 side and in Canterbury under 18 and under 19 teams. He played in the pack for Canterbury University and captained Canterbury Colts before returning to Gisborne. His allround skills make him a forward who is clearly marked for better things.

Peter Scammell (Ngatapa): 23, 15st 9lbs, 6ft 3½in. Lock. An interest in rowing, at which level he took part in national trials, and rugby divided Peter Scammell's time a bit but he is now concentrating on rugby with good results. He would rank as probably the best lineout forward in Poverty Bay and plays a lot of well directed, power packed rugby.

Robbie Newlands (Old Boys): 27, 15st 10 lbs, 6ft 1in. Prop. A well established member of the powerful Old Boys and Poverty Bay front rows, Robbie Newlands has passed the century mark in first class games and is a prop held in high regard by members of the "front row club." He has propped against the best of them and has yet to be mastered, played eight games for the Junior All Blacks but has yet to get a national trial, something which many rugby followers feel he has justly earned. Uses his strength well and can win ball near the front of the lineout.

Warwick Wilsher (Old Boys): 24, 14st 9lbs, 5ft 9in. Hooker. A versatile forward who shapes well as a loose forward for his club but whose main role in the rep side is as hooker. Wilsher has a lot of pace which he uses well in the loose on attack and defence.

Tony Hyland (Old Boys): 28, 17st, 6ft 2in. Lock. Another member of the great Old Boys pack which has dominated Gisborne rugby for some time. A particularly strong lock, he is a good grafting forward in tight and loose play and is also a handy man in the lineouts. He played two games for Poverty Bay in 1978 and has been a regular member of the squad since then.

Pera Ngerengere (GMC): 22, 13st 10lbs, 5ft 9in. Flanker. One of the fastest forwards in the squad, Ngerengere is very quick to the loose ball in broken play and he uses this speed well in keeping the pressure on opposing inside backs. His club play has been impressive as it creates the opportunities on which the lively GMC side thrives.

Kevin Wooster (Old Boys): 22, 14st 4lbs, 6ft 3in. No. 8. The son of a former Old Boys and Poverty Bay stalwart, Wooster is a newcomer to senior representative rugby in Gisborne. He has impressed as a highly promising number eight, fast on attack and doing the covering work that is that hallmark of a player in this position.

Team manager Grant Allen had a long and distinguished career as a hooker for Poverty Bay, playing well over 100 games for his union. He had a 12-year career in first class rugby, ending in 1979, and he is now a member of the management committee of the Poverty Bay Rugby Football Union. During his playing career he captained Poverty Bay, deputising for and later taking the place of Ian Kirkpatrick.

Dick Glover (Selector-coach) was a highly successful coach at Gisborne Boys High School and coached Old Boys seniors before being appointed selector-coach of the Poverty Bay senior rep side. He is now in the second half of his second two-year term and his team is producing good rugby. Dick Glover is an advocate of the running game and this rubs off on his team. He is also regional director of coaching and his work in this respect covers a wide field.

"For Flawless Flooring"

FLOORING AND NOTHING ELSE FOR OVER 30 YEARS

In 1937, the South Africans met Poverty Bay, East Coast, and Bay of Plenty combined. This game was at the Oval and Poverty Bay players were A. McAneney, Eric Grant, A. Read, D. Swinburne, F.C. McAneney, Ray Rogers, W. Matheson, and G. Phillips. The magnificent 1937 Springbok side disposed of the combined side by 33 points to 3.

Forgive me for feeling more excited about this game than is usual, but for those who have non statistical minds, it's my 16th birthday. I was born in time for the opening match of the 1965 Springbok tour and made my first public appearance at Rugby Park for that game.

What a day — I was nervous at first but soon become a favourite with the crowd. It was rather hectic because I led a huge parade through town in the morning and then had to appear at Rugby Park in the afternoon.

What with torrential rain, bands playing and over 17,000 spectators I was a little bewildered at first — however, not half as upset and frightened as some of my smaller kin who were released onto the ground before the kick off. That was a thoughtless act and my family was upset.

I am very lucky though, because since that occasion I have made many appearances at my favourite ground as well as being adopted by the Rugby Supporters Club (Marvellous parents). My image can now be found on ties, jerseys, badges posters and rosettes. — I've come a long way since that day 16 years ago.

Now, can you understand why today is an extra special celebration for me!

The 1965 game played in daunting conditions was against Poverty Bay East Coast and saw the Springboks win by 32-3.

Incidentally, today's tour opener is only the fourth time South Africa have played in Gisborne. Prior to 1937, the 1921 game was against Hawkes Bay-Poverty Bay, at Napier, and won 14-8 by South Africa. Poverty Bay players in that combined side were, Tom Heeney, Ed Torrie, W. Te Whata, Jimmy Mill, Wally Langlands, and Pare Tureia.
